USPA NEWS - A Full-Scale War — Without Official Declaration

What we are witnessing today is no longer a threat or a possibility. A real, full-scale war has broken out between the Islamic Republic of Iran and Israel, without any official declaration.
It is painful.
It is sorrowful.
And most of all, it is shocking — especially for the people of Iran.

The Iranian People Are Not the Enemy

As an Iranian, I must make this clear once again:
The people of Iran — aside from the corrupt loyalists of the Islamic regime — have never and will never hold any enmity toward Israel.
We are a peaceful nation. We have always been.
We are not supporters of war — in any form.

But the question remains:
Will the people of Iran finally wake up?
Will they finally see what Ali Khamenei and his regime have done to our country?

Millions of Iranians only wanted a normal life — nothing more.
They did not deserve to become displaced and trapped in a cycle of war and oppression.

Truth Must Be Told: Israel Has Not Targeted Civilians

Based on accurate research, repeated contact with people inside the country, and detailed analysis of videos and reports, I can say with certainty:

> Every target Israel has struck so far has been military or regime-affiliated.

To this point, there is no confirmed civilian area that has been hit intentionally.
This may not guarantee that no civilian has been harmed — and if any were, it is tragic.
But let it be known:

The Islamic regime never places its high-ranking officials among the ordinary people.
The buildings that have been struck in Tehran are all governmental, military, or intelligence-affiliated.

The Iranian People Condemn the Regime's Attacks on Israeli Civilians

The Iranian People Condemn the Regime's Attacks on Israeli Civilians

Iranians across the world are deeply saddened and outraged by the Islamic Republic's blind attacks targeting innocent Israeli civilians. This regime — which has long victimized its own people — has now escalated its brutality by deliberately striking civilians: children, women, men — innocent people with no part in this war.

While the Israeli government has tried to limit its strikes to military and strategic targets, the Islamic Republic has done the opposite: launching reckless and indiscriminate attacks meant only to spread fear, chaos, and death among the civilian population.

Such actions, from the perspective of every peace-loving and humane Iranian, are not acts of defense — they are crimes against humanity.

> We, the people of Iran, say it clearly: this regime does not represent us.
We do not support this bloodshed.
We have no hatred toward any nation or people.
Our only enemy is the regime that has oppressed, tortured, and destroyed us for 46 years.

Propaganda, Madness, and the Insult to Truth

The Iranian people are in shock — in disbelief.
But what does the state media do?
Controlled entirely by Ali Khamenei, the regime's propaganda machine broadcasts nothing but:

War anthems

Lies

Glorification of the regime

Denial of reality

They have shut down the internet.
They still pretend the country is victorious — as if nothing has happened.
It's absurd. It's dangerous. It's criminal.

They do not inform the public that we are at war.
They do not prepare the people.
They provide no shelters. No emergency plans. No public safety measures.

They simply let people die — unknowingly.

The Real Enemy

This is the moment to speak the truth.
The true enemy of the Iranian people is not Israel. It is the Islamic Republic itself.

A regime that:

Lies to its people

Exposes them to danger without protection

Destroys access to information

Uses media not for truth, but manipulation

It mistakes war for civil protests — and reacts with the same brutality and ignorance.

We Speak for Peace — and for Justice

Let this be heard around the world:

We, the people of Iran, do not seek war.

We are not the enemies of Israel — or any nation.

We have been victims of this regime for 46 years.

And today, we declare: We know who our real enemy is.

A Flame of Rage — A Hope for Peace

Today, I say with full clarity:
We hope, with all our hearts, that this regime ends — as soon as possible.

We stand beside the people of Israel, not in hatred, but in shared humanity and pain.
We are not aggressors.
We are witnesses.
We endure.
But we are also filled with righteous anger.

This anger is not born of violence.
It is a flame lit in our hearts — by the betrayals, lies, and brutalities of a regime that dragged us into a war for no reason, based on the delusional ideology of a mad leader.

This Is Not Journalism — It Is A Voice from the Heart

This article is not written by a journalist.
It is written by a human being — an Iranian — whose only purpose is:

To record this moment,
To speak the truth,
And to ensure that our voices do not get lost in history.

I am responsible for this article.
You are free to republish or share it, anywhere, without needing permission.

Because this is not about me.
This is about a people longing for peace and freedom.

Let us one day rebuild a free Iran — together.
Let us remember these days not for war, but for truth.

Thank you.
